

Evening German Language Course

Description

Learn German in Vienna

Our Evening German Language Course helps you reach your targeted German language level within 8 weeks. Evening German Language Courses take place two times each week: Monday/Wednesday for A levels, and Tuesday/Thursday for B and C levels. Course times are always from 6-8 pm in the evenings. This class is ideal for international students or working professionals.

Content | Method | Course Material

A typical Evening German Language Course helps you to learn German in the following ways.

- you develop all five skills, including listening, reading, speaking, writing and interacting
- you improve your communicative effectiveness
- you expand your vocabulary
- you study and train your grammar
- you turn into a fluent and confident communicator with local knowledge

At INNES, quality and professionalism matter. We work exclusively with qualified and passionate teachers, first-class materials and dynamic and engaging methods so that you can learn German in a personalised way. All teachers are using communication-oriented and interactive methods that allow students to be constantly active and experiment with new language. Our teachers will create regular progress tests for you, in order to guarantee your learning progress. You will have extra speaking practice in all classes.

In your Evening German Language Course you will learn German by using a course book and a selection of supplemental materials. For A1-B1 courses you work with the course book Menschen, and from B2 onwards with the course book Aspekte. Course book and all supplemental materials are included in the course fee.
